

Fifth Grade Technology Terms

Spreadsheet	An application used for managing, analyzing, and presenting information which can be sorted, calculated, and displayed in a chart
Cell	The small rectangles in a spreadsheet where a row and column intersect
Rows	Horizontal divisions in a spreadsheet that are named by numbers
Columns	Vertical divisions in a spreadsheet that are named by letters
Row Label	Words to the left of the row usually gives a name to the row
Column Label	Words at the top of a column usually gives a name to the column
Row Heading	The row numbers to the left of a worksheet
Column Heading	The letters that appear at the top of the columns on a worksheet
Key/Legend	Shows an explanation of the symbols used in a chart
Word Wrap	a feature of word-processing programs in which a word that exceeds a preset line length is moved automatically to the next line
Pictograph	A graph that uses pictures to show and compare information
Boolean Operators	"AND", "OR", and "NOT"-used computer searches between keywords
Plagiarism	the process of copying another person's idea or written work and claiming it as original
Intellectual Property	original creative work manifested in a tangible form that can be legally protected, e.g. by a patent, trademark, or copyright
Copyright	the legal right of creative artists or publishers to control the use and reproduction of their original works
Portrait	The default page setup that prints a document vertically
Landscape	The page setup that prints a document horizontally
